File No. Influx from Pak Appeals/52

Gen. 194 e.

9-A

 Office of the R.L.A.

From the notice served by Messrs. S.F.B. Tyabji and Co. on the Chief Secretary to Government and the copy of the petition, it will be seen that only the Union of India is a party to the proceedings. As the service of of notice was accepted by the Chief Secretary, Messrs. Little & Co. have been instructed by L.D. to appear for the purpose of pointing out to the Court proceedings and that the State of Bombay was not a party to the proceedings and that the service herein was accepted through oversight. As the Union of India is impleaded in the proceedings an appearance on behalf of that Government would be necessary and the appearance of Shri Jaykar in this case would be in order and he may be supplied with the necessary papers. He may, however, point out the correct position to the Court and thereupon the Court may pass such orders as may be deemed fit. As regards fees, Shri Jaykar will presumably look to Union Government for payment as his appearance is on behalf of that Government.
